

Postcards & Self-Mailers: Various Companies

Before email marketing was a primary tool for marketing message broadcast, postcard series and self-mailers have been a mainstay of marketing messages!

Strong connections with marketing firms and commercial real estate companies have led to the production of many sets of 8.5x11 folding self-mailers and postcard series. These projects involved photo retouch, copy-writing, map illustrations and design planning for efficient printing features and costs.
